Creative Corner

Hello AUGUST

Hello, Crafters!

As we step into August, we're greeted by the golden glow of late summer and the first whispers of fall. Whether you're savoring the last days of summer break or easing into back-to-school mode, The Craft Studio is your ideal creative getaway.

From inspiring workshops and classes to cozy crop events, weekday crafting sessions, and even private gatherings or solo creative time, there's always something fun and crafty happening at The Craft Studio.

Follow us on Facebook and Instagram or keep an eye on our website to stay up-to-date on the latest happenings!

See you soon!

Crafting Tip of the Month

Keep baby wipes nearby! They're perfect for quick cleanups whether it's ink on your fingers, glue on your table, or dust on your stamps. Plus, they're gentle enough for cleaning tools without damaging them.

Quotes from Crafters:

"I told myself I'd finish my current project before starting another.
Now I have 5 current projects."

"Yes, I really do need all 47 shades of green paper."

"You know you're a crafter when you spend 2 hours organizing your supplies instead of crafting."

"Crafting: the only time hoarding is considered a talent."

"Why yes, I do need a whole cart of supplies for one greeting card."
